Sentence

Thus says the Lord, 'Maintain justice, and do what is right, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed.' Isaiah 56.1

Collect - Prayer of the day

Go before us, O Lord, with your most gracious favour and further us with your continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name,
and finally, by your mercy,
obtain everlasting life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

From the Rector's Desk:

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. (Ps 46:1). This week I've been reminded again how much God cares for us as we have negotiated funeral arrangements for Paul Krebs, as well as starting all the legal paper work that needs to be done. I've also been very aware of your prayers holding us as we spend time with Bev (Gavin's mother), and as we too grieve for Paul. But grief is not the only place where God meets us. The psalmist's words are true every day: God is our refuge and our strength in the ordinary rhythms of life as well as in times of sorrow. He is the One we can rely on: patient, faithful, ever-present, and overflowing with love. So take time each day to pause, to breathe, and to thank God for His steadfast love.
